

CO 233 Research Writing
Prerequisite: CO 201

A course designed to further enhance skills associated with producing research-based and –enhanced academic papers, including evaluation of sources, information literacy, critical thinking, collection of data and incorporation of first- and second-person research.