GUIDE TO

ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

The Kuyper College Zondervan Library electronic resources may be accessed through the web at www.kuyper.edu/library . The Library's website provides access to general information, the online catalog (print, audio and video/DVD resources), periodical holdings and more. The Library Resources tab in Sakai (<https://sakai.lampschools.org>) is the complete resource site for you as a student. It contains information and access to all Zondervan Library services such as interlibrary loan, citing information, research guides, database access and more. Remote access to electronic resources (databases) is available using a login and password provided during student orientation or through the Information Technology (IT) Department. These resources have been purchased/provided for you as you undertake your studies at Kuyper College.

Kuyper College Zondervan Library licenses online databases for use by students, faculty and staff. These databases index, abstract, and in some cases provide full-text documents to academic journals, scholarly publications, news magazines, newspapers, conference proceedings, etc. All electronic resources may be accessed via the College web page or Library Resources page in Sakai using your student login/password.

Electronic Databases available through the Internet:

- Atla Religion Database

This database is a comprehensive database designed to support religious and theological scholarship in graduate education and faculty research. The file contains citations from international titles and multi-author works in and related to the field of religion. It also includes a full range of index citations to journal articles, essays in multi-author works, and book reviews from Atla's print indexes: Religion Index One (RIO), Religion Index Two (RIT), Index to Book Reviews in Religion (IBRR). Though coverage is from 1949 to the present, not all publications begin in 1949.

- Christian Periodical Index

This database provides access to English language articles and reviews written from an evangelical perspective. Currently CPI indexes over 140 selected publications from the broad spectrum of knowledge including science, literature, medicine, music, philosophy, history, sociology, nursing, and education. Coverage is representative of the major doctrinal positions within evangelical Christianity. CPI is published by the Association of Christian Librarians.

- CRC Periodicals Index

The CRCPI provides access to articles from various periodicals that are of interest to members of the Christian Reformed Church in America. Please check the CRCPI web site for a list of the periodicals indexed.

- Creative Commons

Creative Commons helps you legally share your knowledge and creativity to build a more equitable, accessible, and innovative world. We unlock the full potential of the internet to drive a new era of development, growth and productivity. With a network of staff, board, and affiliates around the world, Creative Commons provides free, easy-to-use copyright licenses to make a simple and standardized way to give the public permission to share and use your creative work—on conditions of your choice.

- CultureGrams

A leading reference that is full text for concise, reliable, and up-to-date cultural information on countries across the globe, this database includes four editions: the World Edition (for middle school and up) and the Kids, States, and Canadian Provinces editions (for upper elementary school students). Also includes, photos, downloadable slideshows and streaming videos, build-your-own sortable data tables and graphs, interviews with native children and adults, printable maps and flags, sounds files for the national anthems and country names and much more. Written by local experts, there is information on government, religion, daily life and customs, history, plus maps, flags, and both photographs and videos. CultureGrams reports are updated twice annually.

- Digital Library of Abraham Kuyper

Abraham Kuyper was the greatest and most controversial figure in the Calvinist renaissance that took place at the conclusion of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth in The Netherlands. He was perhaps the most prolific public intellectual of his day.

The Digital Library of Abraham Kuyper offers access to more than 150,000 pages of documents related to Abraham Kuyper, including the majority of his published works and his complete archive.

The Digital Library of Abraham Kuyper is co-sponsored by the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary and The Historical Documentation Centre for Dutch Protestantism (1800 to the present day) at the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam.

- Yoder Index

The Yoder Index is a tool that enables researchers to identify where John Howard Yoder writes about specific topics, Scriptures, and persons. Due to the large volume of Yoder's work, the Index is a work in progress with new books and articles being added on a regular basis.

The index contributors are John Nugent, Professor of Old Testament at Great Lakes Christian College; Branson Parler, Assistant Professor of Theological Studies at Kuyper College; and Jason Vance, M. Div., IT Support with Habitat for Humanity of Michigan.

We encourage you to take advantage of these resources and implement them into your studies.

Remember, librarians are happy to work with you to select the best resources for your research or information needs.
