

Job Description for Pastor

Grace Christian Reformed Church, June 2022

Grace CRC is looking for a full-time pastor who will serve Christ in building his church by leading Grace in worship, preaching, and pastoral care as we deepen our call to be Christ-centered in ministry to our diverse neighborhood.

Desired qualities and skills

- Commitment to diversity and social justice as an outflow of the heart of the gospel
- Commitment to deep personal relationships and discipleship, growing together in unity as the people of the new creation
- Ability to engage in neighborhood relationships both of community leaders and residents
- Ability to engage a theologically and sociologically diverse congregation
- Ability to help us set long term visions and goals but also to keep the important details and follow-through in mind
- Ordained (or eligible) in the CRC/RCA
- Demonstrated experience in urban cross cultural settings
- Ability to use office software and social media

Primary responsibilities:

- Preaching and teaching
 - Biblical, expository, and inspirational preaching most Sundays of the year
 - Coordinating with worship leaders to offer a meaningful worship service
 - Help plan, coordinate, and build up other leaders for discipleship activities like Bible studies or small groups
- Congregational care
 - Listening to, meeting with, and visiting congregational members especially those in need
 - Empowering the elders to minister to their care groups
- Administration
 - Work with council and congregational leaders for strategic planning, financial stability, and leadership development
 - Help ensure clear and consistent communication with the congregation
- Church ministries
 - Help develop and implement neighborhood connections and ministries
