

Teach English in South Korea

Promise Opens Doors is a non-profit organization based in the US. Since our founding, our singular mission has been to promote the English language learning of non-native speakers. We are a proud partner of TheWorknPlay organization.

Since 2003, TheWorknPlay has provided career opportunities around the world, specializing in teaching and linguistic positions. Throughout the years, they have assisted schools and organizations in hiring the right candidates to join their teams and helped job seekers find careers with great WLB (Work-Life Balance).

Our career advisor team is available to assist graduates in applying for teaching positions at TheWorknPlay. As current and former English teachers, we understand that the job search process is not easy - if you have any questions as you apply for jobs at WorknPlay or elsewhere, feel free to direct them to our career team, and we will do our best to answer or direct you to relevant information.

Job Description from TheWorknPlay
Description	Full time opportunities to teach English in private academies throughout South Korea.
Contract Period	Twelve month contract
Hiring dates	Continuous
Salary	$2200/month
Class length and type	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 40 - 60 minute classes • All age groups available
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bachelor's degree in any discipline, TEFL preferred but not required <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No teaching experience required • Applications accepted within 6 months of graduation date
Required Passport	US, Canada, UK, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa

Benefits
Paid flight to South Korea	Airport pickup	Housing	Insurance
After arrival programs and groups	Sick days	Pension	Severance pay
Continued support throughout contract		10 days vacation plus all Korean national holidays

Send resume to: careeradvisor@promiseopensdoors.org