

KUYPER COLLEGE

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Admissions Counselor
Department: Enrollment
Reports To: Director of Admissions
FLSA Status: Full-time, Exempt
Prepared Date: April 2026

Summary: The Admissions Counselor, through faithful service to accomplish the mission of Kuyper College exists to promote Kuyper College and support its enrollment efforts by managing effective relationships with prospective undergraduate students, parents, and other influencers. This is accomplished by a coordinated effort within the enrollment team and across the college. Key activities include travel, personalized correspondence, daytime and evening phone contacts, electronic communication, hosting visitors on campus and intentionally building and nurturing relationships with key influencers.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following:

- Manage an admissions counseling/student recruitment assignment with specific contact and recruitment goals.
- Maintain and accurately record regular contact with prospective students, parents and influencers through the use of the college's Customer Relations Management System.
- Visit high schools, college fairs, and attend special events to build Kuyper's visibility, develop relationships and recruit students. The nature of the duties will require some overnight, weekend and evening hours.
- Counsel prospective students and parents regarding the general college search process, all aspects of college life, and the admissions and financial aid process.
- Connect prospective students and parents with other college resources, including faculty, student life, academic office, and business office.
- Participate in the implementation of on-campus and off-campus admissions, recruitment, financial aid, and orientation events.
- Host student visitors and parents for individual visits and tours of the campus.
- Understand and represent Kuyper College and its reformed philosophy, beliefs, distinctive characteristics, and objectives to prospective students, parents, and influencers.
- Maintain current knowledge of Kuyper programs, activities, and opportunities and effectively communicate these to prospective students, parents and friends of the college.
- Uphold the NACCAP (North American Coalition for Christian Admissions Professionals) Principles of Good Practice in promoting Kuyper College.
- Other duties as assigned.
